SHOOK

His Clenched Fist

In the Face of Prof. R. S. Thomas.

Exciting Scene at the High School.

Harsh Words Were Used With Vigor.

Investigating Committee Will Not Report.

While the special investigation committee of the Board of Education was in session Monday night, at the high school, there was an animated scene in the room across the hall.

Clarence Findley and superintendent Thomas were the principals in the affair. It is said that the first named shook his fist dangerously near to the nose of the instructor and that he used some very harsh terms, in which the expression "liar" was prefaced with numerous adjectives. Mr. Findley's wife was one of the witnesses before the committee.

Committee Meeting.
The committee meeting lasted until 11 o'clock.

The witnesses examined were Prof. E. H. Birney, principal of the high school; Miss Grace C. Sylla, instructor in drawing; Mrs. W. C. Findley; Miss Anna Thomas, John Smith and Miss Julia Cochrane, high school teachers.

A member of the committee said today that it would be two weeks before the committee would make its report.

Tonight the Board of Education will attempt to elect some of the teachers for next year. It is said that some of the teachers who are favorites of Prof. Thomas will be hung up until the investigation is over. Then the question arises whether or not the Board can refuse to employ the teachers, who were once hired and filed letters of acceptance. It is surmised, that if the Board declines to re-instate some of the teachers, law suits for damages are liable to follow.

PROMOTION

For a Former Akron Young Man.

Julius C. Mengendorf is Passenger Traffic Manager.

The Akron friends of Julius C. Mengendorf, who formerly lived in Akron, will be pleased to read following account of his promotion, published in Cleveland Town Topics: "Alive to the growing importance and needs of street railway service, which have expanded with the expansion of the trolley systems, President Everett of the Big Consolidated has created the new position of passenger traffic manager for that road; and with his customary sagacity President Everett has appointed Julius C. Mengendorf to fill the position. Mr. Mengendorf is a passenger man of long experience and of much ability.

"His most recent service, at the head of the passenger departments of the lines leading from Cleveland to Akron and Painesville, has brought him under Mr. Everett's eye to a degree that convinced the latter that Mengendorf was the man needed to take care of and develop the business of the Big Consolidated, and the appointment was made on Thursday. Mr. Mengendorf's business cards will hereafter read: 'Passenger Traffic Manager Cleveland Electric Railway, Cleveland, Painesville & Eastern Railway and Akron, Bedford & Cleveland Railway.'

No order too small for our consideration. If you can't call, telephone 349. We are always ready to answer inquiries. The Jabant Co., 166 South Howard St.

MAYOR MAD

Because of Statements Made by Rev. J. S. Rutledge.

Mayor Bob Wright of Glenville was pretty "mad" Monday morning after reading the published sermon of Rev. J. S. Rutledge of Glenville in which the minister attacks the mayor, says the Plain Dealer.

Mayor Wright threatens to write a letter, "telling the truth about this matter," as he puts it.

The mayor was not inclined Monday to discuss the situation very fully. He said he didn't think the preacher's utterances were worthy of notice.

"I fancy the statements are his," said the mayor, "and I think I'll have to write a letter showing the situation in its true light."

HARMONY

Did Not Predominate

At Monday Night's Session of City Council.

Commissioners Want a Tax Monopoly.

Objections to Crisp's One Man Authority.

Mr. Schroeder Takes a Shot at Mr. McMillen.

Harmony was at no time predominant at City Council meeting Monday night. From the very start it was observed that Messrs. Fieheger and Brady had chips on their shoulders for Commissioner Crisp and McMillen.

The Commissioners were represented at the meeting by Messrs. McGarry and McMillen. Mr. McGarry took occasion to comb a few kinks out of Mr. McMillen. Very little business was transacted.

The Tax Levy.

At last week's Council meeting the ordinance regulating the tax levy for 1899 was referred to the general improvement committee and the Commissioners. Mr. Brady asked if any member of the committee had been invited by the Commissioners to discuss the question. None had. This lack of courtesy was vigorously denounced by Mr. Brady, who said that it was "useless to ask the Commissioners to act in conjunction with Council," that "if they" the Commissioners, "want to be the whole push, better let them be it. WOULDN'T BE PUT OFF.

Went to the Kitchen and Made It Himself.

Husband said to me one morning, "It seems to me, my dear, that I will pay you to make a trial, and see whether it may not be true as your physician says, that the cause of your persistent dyspepsia, head aches and palpitation of the heart is coffee."

He said, "Suppose we stop coffee and try this Postum Food Coffee?" I agreed to it, and so a package was sent me.

In the morning we had the new food coffee, and after filling my husband's cup, I filled my own. I sipped a few spoonfuls, and I am ashamed to say that my eyes filled too. I could not drink it.

Husband suggested that inasmuch as this was the first trial, the cook had not made it properly. I took the coffee pot to the kitchen, poured it out and examined the package carefully, then followed directions exactly (an easy thing to do, by the way) and after I had got the coffee pot to boiling, I left it in the cook's charge, saying that I would send out for it in fifteen minutes.

When it came in and I poured out some fresh cups for husband and myself, what a revelation! I could not have believed it possible that there was such a difference between an article poorly prepared and properly prepared. Here it was, a black brown, clear and delicious. The addition of a little cream, turned it to that perfect color that an epicure delights in.

This was several months ago, and I attribute my gain in flesh and my perfect health, to the use of Postum, as it has served me as an ideal food. My friends frequently say something like "I never saw you looking so well. What are you taking?" I replied, "I am taking no medicine, but I am drinking hard just now, drinking Postum Food Coffee," and the results are very real indeed to husband and myself. Mrs. Jennie Knight, Washington, D. C.
